Boy Scout Troop 997

Boy Scout Troop 997 of Hollywood Riviera recently held a Court of Honor at the Parkway School, during which a number of awards were presented. Opening ceremonies were in charge of Senior Patrol leader Rickey Coulter, following which Scoutmaster Don Emberson welcomed all of the parents.

Neighborhood Commissioner Bert Ainsley presented the troop with several group awards including the "For God and Country" plaque, significant of the high goals attained by the troop during the past year. Films from the Silver Moccasin Trail were shown by Scoutmaster Roy Hunter, giving the boys a preview of what they can expect when undertaking the hike themselves this summer. Camping chairman Ed Farr spoke briefly on plans for future camp-outs. Following closing ceremonies, refreshments were served.
